Mr. Simon Cheung joined us as golf member since 1994, soon after his return with his wife from Vancouver, Canada. A long-time and enthusiastic golf member for over 17 years, Mr. Cheung has been a staunch supporter of the Club and has become our Golf Committee member in 2007. Sharing the same hobby of golf with his wife, Mr Cheung finds the Club not only an ideal place to continue his passion for golf, but also a great location for his family days as it provides comprehensive recreational facilities such as swimming pool, tennis and badminton courts. As Golf Committee member and a town planner himself, Mr. Cheung is delighted to work with other committee members and our management and staff. Satisfied with the improvements of the golf course over the years, he is eager to involve himself more in Club affairs.

Membership Committee	2004 – 2007
S&R Committee	1994 – 1996

Other Club Membership & Service

Member of The Hong Kong Jockey Club

Mr. Wallace Pak is a man of many interests. He was a Council Member for 12 years from 1993, and has since been the Planning & Development Committee Chairman, Finance Committee Chairman, a member of the Membership Committee, Golf Committee and served as Vice Golf Captain. Variety is the spice of life, and while he has helped out in many capacities, development is a strong suit for him. As Planning and Development Committee Chairman, Mr. Pak has played a pivotal role in ensuring that the Club is continuously improving. His drive and desire to achieve this has seen the Club undergo many new projects of late: including the play garden upgrade, sewage treatment plant upgrade and Country Club landscaping in the front car park. And when he is not doing all that, he enjoys a nice round of golf.

Mr. Vincent Poon

Marina Member

Member Since: 1994

Profession/Occupation: Legal

Previous and Current Committee Service

Council Member	2000 – 2011
Committee Chairman Marina Committee	2004 – 2011
Committee Member Marina Committee	1998 – 2004

You might find Mr. Vincent Poon riding on the high seas and enjoying ocean life as a qualified diving coach, skipper and engineer; or you might find him down at the Club, where he has served actively as both a Council Member and a Marina Committee Member starting from 1998, and as Marina Committee Chairman since 2004. Mr. Poon is a true seaman, possessing a wealth of experience in boating and an unsurpassed knowledge of Hong Kong waters. It is little wonder he has been instrumental in the recent development of the Marina, which includes initiatives such as refurbishing the hardstand boat storage facility and replacing docking timber in phases to ensure that the docks are in good and safe condition, with an upgrade to the Harbour Master Building in the planning. He is a firm believer in comradeship amongst fellow boaters, helping to organise the group boat trip to Sai Kung waters and the Moonlight Dinner, a successful and highly enjoyable experience for members to share. It is work such as this that has helped us win a Five Gold Anchor Award from the UK Yacht Harbour Association since 2007, placing us among the top marinas in health and safety, environmental friendliness and maintenance.

Mr. Paul Tse

Member of The Hong Kong Club
Member of The Hong Kong Jockey Club
Member of The Agile Golf and Country Club, Chung Shan
Member of The Chariot Club
Member of The China Club

A veteran Club member since 2001, Mr. Huen Wong brings his vast experience in the legal field to the numerous committees he has served on. This includes the Planning and Development Committee and the Membership Committee, in which he has made many contributions to the improvement of Club facilities. In his capacity as the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr. Wong maintained strict control over the expenditures and costs of the Club. He has ensured that the financial condition of the Club remains sound and healthy while the Club undertakes capital-intensive projects such as golf improvement projects and dock enhancement works.

As a past president of The Law Society of Hong Kong, current chairperson of The Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, and a board member of the Hong Kong International Airport Authority, Mr Wong's public community involvement is notable, and he was duly appointed Justice of the Peace in 2010. Mr. Wong is a passionate believer in the Community Outreach Programme and its mission to make the wider community better for all. He sees all his efforts as helping the Club achieve its vision to be among the region's best.

Other Club Membership & Service

Member of The American Club

Member of The Hong Kong Golf Club

Member of The Hong Kong Jockey Club

Member of The Rotary Club of Hong Kong

For many at the Club, Mr. Glenn Yee needs little introduction. He is a widely recognised member since 1988. He has served on various committees for 19 years, most recently as a member of the Planning and Development Committee. Over the years, Mr. Yee's contributions have been very notable. In the Planning and Development Committee, Mr. Yee has helped make the Club one of the best in the region, all while balancing this with our limited resources. His intimate knowledge of the Club's golf courses, his passion for the game, and his experiences with various committees will make him an invaluable resource.
